Senator Campaigning in Old Seventh District.

REDUCTION OF RATES.

Shows That Those on Grain Are Four Cents Less.

One of the Results of the Hepburn Law.

Anthony, July 30 .- In his speech here Wednesday afternoon, returning again to the old Seventh district in the closing days of the senatorial cam paign, Senator Long declared for the creation of an administrative body to take the executive duties off the shoulders of the interstate commerce commission and relieve it of all duties except those of investigation and rate-

Senator Long stated that he had long favored this idea. He said he had advanced it at Wichita at the time of his famous address to the chamber of commerce that became known later as the "Wichita incident." He favored it during the pendency and making of the Hepburn bill, and tried to have it incorporated in that bill. He believed, he said, that the du-tles of investigating complaints and deciding what were just and reasonable rates were sufficient to employ all the time and the best efforts of the members of the interstate commerce commission. There should be, he said. independent, administrative body, bureau, or officer of the government upon whom would devolve the executive duties now performed by

Bristow, had cited the discrimination against southern Kansas grain for export in a speech he, Bristow, had made at Caldwell in Aug. 1966. Senator Long stated Mr. Bristow sought to leave the impression that the rates in effect on export grain to the guilt thought of their countrymen lying in knew they were not. Senator Long said that after the Bristow Caldwell speech was made in August, 1906, the Hepburn railroad rate law, so despised by LaFollette and Bristow, and which they declare as only good to the big shipper, went into effect. Under the Hepburn law, and in July

1907. Senator Long showed that the Farmers and Merchants club of Pratt. he southern Kansas millers interven ing had made formal complaint to the interstate commerce commission, a hearing and investigation had been had, and the rate on export wheat to the gulf had been reduced 4 cents per hundred pounds. This reduced rate was now, said Senator Long, and had been for a year, in effect. The rates now in effect are not those of the railroads, he said, but those of the inter-state commerce commission. And if they are not low enough yet, as is pos-sibly the case, said Senator Long, an-other complaint can be made and

The decision was made, said Sena-tor Long, under the Hepburn railroad looked down upon by Senator LaFoilette and Mr. Bristow. As it is planned to work the shops further for himself, said Senator Long, the proudest act of his legislative career was the part he had played in making the Hepburn law which had given this

Senator Long discussed the entire question of the railroads. Valuation, long and short haul, overcapitalization, and the like; and expressed the greatest satisfaction that the Chicago platform had so strongly indorsed the Hepburn law. It had also been fully indorsed, time and again, by both President Roosevelt and Mr. Taft, said the Senator Long made a long jump to Anthony. He spoke Tuesday afternoon at Howard, in Elk county; at night at Moline in that county; and then chartered a little special train of his own, for which he paid good money, and ran to Wellington and got a shor: sleep. He then came to Anthony in the morning, and as he changed cars at Harper he was joined by about fifty Harper Republicans and their band. Reaching Anthony, the Attica band was playing, and there was a gooddelegation of Anthony Republi-The crowd marched uptown.

The meeting was held in the open r, in the courthouse yard. There was large crowd, and many were present from adjoining counties and from all over Harper county. Scores were there over Harper county. Scores were there who, as elsewhere in the old Seventh, have met Mr. Long this year, have been his loyal supporters for sixteen years, since he was first a candidate for congress in this district. In Harper county, too, there is another bond due to propinquity to Barber county, the senator's home, and to the fact that, before going to congress Senator Long represented this county in the state ented this county in the state

Harper county was one of the Popu list strongholds. Many years ago it was one of the bitter counties in the early political contests of Senator Long's career. The 1896 campaign wan a hard one here. One of the six Longmpson debates was held at Harper, uch of the old Populist feeling prevails in the county, especially the south part, today due to the radical political agitation of the past few years, and the party factionalism. However, the old, loyal strong and active friends of

It has been stated by anti-Long people and by Bristow partisans that the Bristow club in Anthony number 400. This is not correct, though it is likey that the Bristow club in the entire county may have about 300. This seems to be about the fact. Also the Long men point out some figures relative to the standing of their man. They point to the fact that the signers of the Long petitions in this county number over 400; that there is one township. Biaine, that has only two Bristow men in it; that another township, Banner, that gave C. E. Denton of this county for secretary of state two years ago 34 votes, this year pledged on petitions. 35 to Long. These things are pointed to with pride by Long men as evidences of what really is the condition in the county.

Senator Long spoke last night at Kingman, and is today in south Reno and Kiowa counties.

REVEL OF 200,000.

Chicago's Polish Population Celebrates Inauguration of New Bishop.

Chicago, July 30,-With a parade of 20,000 men in uniform, the blare of bands, the thrill of fireworks, the glare of light, the galety of flags and bunt-ing and gala attire, the pealing of church bells, the joy of feasting, the excitement of oratory and bursts of song, nearly 200,000 men, women and children revelled last night in one of the most remarkable festivals that Chicago ever has seen.

Practically every one of the thousands of Chicago of Polish descent was actively vociferously, hilariously celebrating through the streets.

Uniformed societies from every one of the 32 Polish parishes in the city formed a great parade and escorted from one to another of the four churches of the principal Polish district the cause of the demonstration. trict the cause of the demonstration, the Right Rev. Paul Peter Rhode, the Senator Long again fully reviewed to this southern Kansas audience the value of the Hepburn railroad rate law, and what it had done for Kansas. He stated that the 4 cents per hundred reduction of wheat made a hundred reduction of wheat made a year ago had saved to Kansas, on the basis of the 1905 crop, more than 2 rich with the color of the vestments, crucifixes and crosiers, to leave the church, the choir, through with the sacred ritual of the consecration, swung enthusiastically yet prayerfully into the strains of "God Saves Poland." the national hymn of the Polish peo-

MUCH RESTLESSNESS

Prevails and Everybody Is Suspicious of Everybody Else.

Directing Hand of the Revolution Is Still Hidden.

Constantinople, July 30.-Although he demonstrations in the streets of Constantinople over the granting of a constitution have practically ceased there are signs of much dissatisfaction of the public at the delay in the reconstruction of the ministry by the introduction of liberal elements. Scenes of the wildest description continue in the cafes, where officers and civilians embrace each other and express their delight at the ending of the tyrannical regime. The situation still lacks clearness and it is impossible at present to forecast the next development with any degree of certainty. The young Turks are masters of Constantinople and the European provinces and except in the capital the feeling is anything but favorable to the sultan. Even in Con-stantinople disloyal cries were heard during the recent street demonstrations. At a banquet given in series to celebrate the re-establishment of the constitution the name of the sultan was hooted, while the Christians at this place are beginning to entertain misgivings as to the sincerity of the professions of the young Turks.

Hardly any news has been received from the Asiatic provinces, and this is regarded as disculpting regarded as disquieting.

The vall and military commandant at Smyrna have been dismissed by the young Turks owing to their hostile attitude towards the constitution. A young Turk uprising in favor of the restoration of the constitution had been planned for September 1, the anniversary of the sultante accession to niversary of the sultan's accession to the throne, but the meeting at Reval between King Edward and the emperor of Russia and the imminence of the Anglo-Russian reform proposals precipi-tated matters and forced the young Turks to take action before this date, the object of the constitutional party being to forestall these proposals and render them superfluous

Organization Is Excellent. Everybody has been greatly impressed with the perfect organization of the movement and the absolute discipline in all ranks. The directing hand of the movement is still invisible and unknown. A noteworthy incident in the popular manifestations of last Sunday which at the time escaped notice, is the fact that the military college was surround-ed by troops in order to prevent the students from leaving that institution. The people manifested their resent-ment at this precaution whereupon the troops were withdrawn and the stu-dents moved about freely.

The only incident of today has been a noisy demonstration of artillery officers and soldiers at the porte where months every department of the Santa Fe shops will remain open all this week. This will be particularly good news to the shopmen whose working time has been reduced from the men gathered together apparently clamoring for promotion. As a matter of fact the object of this demonstration was hostility towards Zakki Pasha, grand master of the artiller, whose withdrawal was demanded. the men gathered together apparently and forests, was assisted in getting out of the country, by the good offices of the Italian embassy and this fact has produced a bad impression among the iberal Turks. The escape of Pasha is regarded as an act of cow-ardice in that he abandoned his sovereign at a critical juncture, a course which, it is held, testified to his guilty conscience. Italians explain that the embassy was not aware that Selim Pasha meditated flight.

How Sellm Got Away.

He requested the use of the embassy aunch to embark his son Nihad, who was coming to Rome to take up the post of first secretary in the Ottoman embassy, and made use of the boat to get away himself. They say further that had Selim Pasha applied for the protection of the Italian flag on the ground that his life was in danger, he could not have been refused. The whole Melhamed family is exceedingly unpopular, especially Tedjib, who has not been seen for several days. The constitutional party is anxious to call them to account for many alleged reprehensible deeds in the enriching of themselves. Some of the foreign ambassadors are blamed for the protection and friendship extended to the that had Selim Pasha applied for the

No further news has been received of the fate of Habib Melhamed, who, while trying to escape from the counwhile trying to escape from the country was arrested by some young Turk officers. According to advices from Salonika, Iskender Melhamed was condemned to death by the young Turk committee, but this sentence subsequently was suspended.

The message received by the Turkish consul general from the Turkish government was as follows:

The reading of the announcement to a number of his countrymen by the consul general was greeted with cheers. Munji Bey said:
